

FURANO WINTER

Dec. 2016 – Mar. 2017

Furano City Office Department of Commerce, Industry and Tourism

FURANO SKI AREA Japan's Cultural Ski Destination

A culturally rich ski holiday awaits you in beautiful Furano. The mountain is a favorite with powder enthusiasts and resort skiers alike and has been host to 12 FIS World Cups. Due to a cool inland climate, the resort receives an incredibly light dry powder snow, and frequent bluebird days allow for spectacular views across the valley. Just below the slopes is a town steeped in tradition whose residents delight visitors with cultural music and theatrical performances in the many local restaurants and bars.

New Furano Prince Hotel

Enveloped by the grand natural beauty of Hokkaido, Furano is a resort which you can enjoy year-round. New Furano Prince Hotel can be used as a base for sports or for tourism. The 12-story (above ground) building, reminiscent of a space station, is your promise of a pleasant stay. A long-awaited hot spring facility has been created, and apart from skiing in winter, you can fully enjoy outdoor sports and the natural beauty of lavender and sunflower fields full of flowers.

FURANO SKI AREA

FURANO Japan's Cultural Ski Destination

A culturally rich ski holiday awaits you in beautiful Furano. The mountain is a favorite with powder enthusiasts and resort skiers alike and has been host to 12 FIS World Cups. Due to a cool inland climate, the resort receives an incredibly light dry powder snow, and frequent bluebird days allow for spectacular views across the valley. Just below the slopes is a town steeped in tradition whose residents delight visitors with cultural music and theatrical performances in the many local restaurants and bars.

Two ski-in, ski-out Prince Hotels are located on the mountain, and the ski area shares a common lift pass with two nearby ski resorts. The town's local English-speaking ski host volunteers happily share mountain secrets during tours of the slopes. For the more adventurous, try snowmobiling or backcountry skiing in the surrounding area.

Furano Ski & Snowboard Hosts (Goodwill Guides registered with JNTO)

Our volunteer guides love skiing and boarding and are keen to take you out on their favorite runs, at a level which suits your ability. They can also tell you more about their home town, Furano. This hosting service is free!"

COFFE MORINO TOKEI

珈琲 森時計

Grind your own coffee beans at this famous café in the forest.

Located in the forest below the New Furano Prince Hotel and Ningle Terrace, this picturesque coffee shop was once the setting of a famous Japanese TV drama. The name "Mori-no-Tokei" or Forest Clock Cafe is a reference to time, and how time passes slowly when sitting, looking out into the forest, with a fresh cup of coffee. Guests are offered the chance to grind their own beans which are then used for their coffee.

GOTO SUMIO MUSEUM OF ART

The Goto Sumio Museum is in Kamifurano, a town at the foot of Mt. Tokachi, which is in the Daisetsu Range of Hokkaido. Drawn by the vastness of harsh Hokkaido, in 1987, the Japanese watercolorist Sumio Goto set up a studio on a hill in Kamifurano with a beautiful view of Mt. Tokachi. In 1997, this leading Japanese artist turned the property into a museum. Goto has traveled to Kyoto, Nara, and all over the country to capture its four lovely seasons: the cherry blossoms of spring, the fresh verdure of summer, the brilliant foliage of autumn, and the tranquil blanket of snow in winter. You can see them all here at the Goto Sumio Museum.
